Do you ever struggle with people, problems, or pain in your heart?

If so, you may be interested in LifeQuest. LifeQuest is a supportive and affirming environment for helping us become aware of thoughts and feelings we may not even know we have that sometimes lead us to live and respond in unhelpful ways. LifeQuest also provides ways to help, support, and encourage each other as we journey together toward wholeness of life and relationships. It will meet in the Fellowship Hall on Monday evenings (beginning February) from 7 to 8:30. More information is available on the green sheets at the Hospitality and Information center in the main lobby. Feel free to invite a friend as well--this is a great way to reach out to others and help them see how God can help them! Specially focused groups will be available for those who have participated previously--see Marvin if you want to know what those are. Currently childcare is not available; if you are interested in helping provide childcare, please let us know. If you have any questions about LifeQuest, see Marvin or someone who has participated previously. If you think you may be interested in participating, please email, call, or write your name and number down and give it to Marvin Bryant. (marvin@nwchurch.us).
